Weekends in Plymouth

1 Saturdays are great

a) Before you read, look at the pictures: Where is Luca?

In picture ... Luca is at the cinema / at the market / in the park / at home / ...

Saturdays are great. I have no school.
Mum always works on Saturdays.
But dad always stays at home. I make a big breakfast for everybody. Yummy!

In the morning we go shopping. First we go to the supermarket. Then we go to the market. Dad buys vegetables – boring!
We can buy nice things – like sweets.

In the afternoon dad and Grace usually play games at home. Jack and I go to Central Park. We ride our BMX bikes there.

In the evening I sometimes go to the cinema. I meet my friends there. Jack often comes too. But Grace never comes.

b) Match the sentence parts.

1 On Saturdays Luca
has no school.

2 Luca always makes ...

1 On Saturdays Luca has ...

2 Luca always makes ...

3 Then they all go ...

4 Dad and Grace usually play ...

5 Jack and Luca go ...

6 In the evening they sometimes go ...

5 a) Read and circle.

Mum: Look, Ellie. What about the pink shirt / week?

Ellie: Oh no, Mum! You know I don't like pink / present.

But I banana / like the blue shirt.

Mum: Yes, but it's too expensive / happy – it's £45!

Ellie: What about the trainers when / then?

I like the red trainers / place.

Mum: Mmm, they're OK. But I like the pink trainers.

Ellie: Oh Mum! They're tired / terrible.

b) Read with a partner.
